What to Do

Events

Art & Craft Fair

The Art Commission invites you to tour the beautiful grounds of the City Center and browse the works of more than 100 artisans in its 36th annual show.

Flip this brochure over for a map of artists by product category.

Food Vendors

Stop by one of the food vendors located near City Hall and the Upton House and sample everything from fresh lemonade, delicious fudge, hot kettle corn, grilled hot dogs, roasted almonds and more!

Family Midway

Enjoy dozens of rides, games of chance and skill and tasty elephant ears along the Family Midway, located in Dodge Park near the Coach's Ice Cream Kidzfest Tent.

Library's Local Author Book Sale

Saturday, July 30 10am-4pm

In the Library's Programming Center. Partial list: Kenneth Allen, Nicole Castle, Gilbert Guevara, Debra Lawrence, Alan Naldrett, Gloria Olman, Anthony Stachurski, Laura Vittadini and many more!

SterlingFAST 5k Walk-Run

Saturday, July 30th at 9:00 a.m.

Race course will take runners down Utica Road to the city Nature Center where they will cross over the river and come back via the paved trail system. This will be a fun family event for all runners and walkers!

Upton House Tours

Allow the Historical Commission to take you on a tour of the historic Upton House, located on the corner of Dodge Park and Utica Roads, from 4 to 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

Naturalization Ceremony

Watch as the dream of becoming an American citizen becomes a reality for several people at 10 a.m. Friday in the Library's Programming Center, sponsored by the Sterling Heights Ethnic Community Committee.
